RICKARD ACCUSED BY YOUNG GIRL

Arrests Sports Promoter on Criminal Assault Charge in New York.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, January 21.—Tex Rickard, internationally known promoter of sporting events, was charged by a magistrate's court today with criminal assault on fifteen-year-old Alice Ruck, public school pupil and daughter of an East Side station.

Through counsel Rickard, who surrendered on learning a bench warrant had been issued for his arrest, charged, which were made by the Children's Society on complaint of the Ruck girl, that he knew nothing about the case. The statement, declaring the situation mysterious, asserted Rickard undoubtedly had a number of bitter enemies, as he now was engaged in considerable litigation.

The three girls appeared in court clad in cheap dresses, plain coats and cotton stockings. Their parents also were present.

Seen later in their simple quarters in the dim-lit East Side tenements, the parents all protested to the known nothing of the story until called to court. Complaining that their daughters were being held by the Children's Society, they said the girls went to public schools and habitually came home early at night. All said they had never heard of Mr. Rickard.

The Ruck girl's mother said she had been summoned to a police station last Saturday night, where she was told her daughter and the Ruck girl had been given to the Children's Society after they had gone to Bellevue Hospital and falsely reported having taken iodine. Since then the society had detained all three children.

Vincent Pisarra, superintendent of the society, who filed the charges against the promoter of the Dempsey-Carpenter bout, said that after the children's court held the girls on a blanket charge of incorrigibility last week the society physician examined them and found that the Ruck girl alone showed indications of assault.

Story of Girls.

Subsequently, he alleged, the girls told this story: Rickard had talked to them last fall while they were in their swimming suits at Madison Square Garden and then gave each of them a dollar. A few days later they again went to the pool and he gave them each another dollar. The third time they were there he asked if they would have a drink of wine, but they declined.

"Well, then come on up and see my office," he then was alleged to have said.

According to Mr. Pisarra's account, the girls went to the office in the tower of Madison Square Garden, the same tower in which was located the Stanford White studio that figured in the Thaw case, where, they asserted, Rickard improperly conducted himself.

On the night of December 18 he was accused of having taken Alice Ruck and Anna Hesse to the 47th street apartment, said to have been leased by another man, where, it was charged, he assaulted the Ruck girl and impaired the morals of her chum.

Denied by Attorney.

In a supplemental statement, Steuer, Rickard's attorney, said: "I was retained by Mr. L. Howard Lehman, the attorney for Mr. George Rickard, to represent him in the charge that was lodged against him in the magistrate's court this morning."

"Subsequent to my arraignment I went over the alleged charge with Mr. Lehman and Mr. Rickard and I find that so far as they know, it is absolutely and utterly without foundation. The situation is mystifying. Mr. Rickard is at the present time engaged in considerable litigation and undoubtedly has a number of very bitter enemies."

"We have not, up to this time, succeeded in tracing the cause or origin for this horrible accusation. Mr. Rickard assures me that he is unacquainted with the person or persons who make it and that he cannot conjure any circumstances by reason of which it should have been made. The matter came to him as a complete surprise. He shall cause it to be very thoroughly investigated and as soon as we learn the real facts will be very glad to give them to the public."

Spain Frees Matches.

Monopoly on Manufacture and Sale Lifted.

MADRID, January 21.—Spain's monopoly on the manufacture and sale of matches will soon disappear, says an announcement today in the newspaper A. B. C. This decision, it says, was reached at a meeting of the cabinet yesterday, which has virtually decided that the manufacture and sale of matches hereafter will be free, with importation permitted upon the payment of customs duties.

The government has decided, says the newspaper, to submit for discussion in the cortes the question of all customs duties recently raised by the customs commission above the rate allowed by the Spanish basic law. The A. B. C. demands that the cortes abolish the surcharges on such duties, whereby importers are compelled to pay in gold pesetas.

MISS KNOX TRIAL FEB. 28.

Eastlake Will Appear Against Nurse In Murder Case.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE STAR.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., January 21.—The trial of Miss Sarah E. Knox, Baltimore nurse, charged with the murder of Mrs. Margaret Eastlake at Colonial Beach, September 30, is set for February 28, instead of February 27, as has been heretofore reported. The regular term of the Westernland county court convenes on February 27, but because of several minor cases on the docket the case of Miss Knox will not come up until the following day.

Attorneys for Miss Knox are not expected to ask for a change of venue, but a jury will probably be selected from Northumberland or Richmond county. Feeling in Westernland county is said to be strong against the accused woman and many of the citizens of the county are disqualified to serve as jurors, due to the fact that they were present at the trial in December of 1920. Roger D. Eastlake, husband of the murdered woman, who was acquitted, Eastlake will appear as a witness against Miss Knox.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, January 21.—Surrogate Foley today signed orders for apprehension of Louis H. and Ernest J. H. Amy, Wall street bankers, on charges of contempt of court arising from litigation instituted by a married sister residing in Paris.

This sister recently succeeded in ousting her brothers as trustees of a $98,050 trust (und established for her by her father, whose banking business of H. Amy & Co. was inherited by the sons. The sister charged that her brothers had used the trust fund to bolster up the business before it finally collapsed.

The court named the Bankers' Trust Company as the sister's trustee and directed the brothers to turn over $98,050, which they were alleged to have in securities. The trust company instituted contempt proceedings after the pair twice were alleged to have ignored the order.
